

ONDEX Automation Announces Partnership with Automation & Control Inc.

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)—ONDEX Automation (“ONDEX” or the “Company”) is proud to announce it has completed a partnership with Automation & Control Inc. (“ACI”), a Moorestown, NJ-based leader in control systems and industrial automation services. This strategic partnership marks a significant milestone in ONDEX Automation’s mission to deliver innovative automation solutions to our North American manufacturing customers.

Founded in 1995 by President Ron Iannacone, ACI specializes in custom automation engineering, industrial electrical installation, and control panel fabrication, providing tailored solutions to meet complex operational needs. ACI has cultivated deep customer relationships across the pharmaceutical, packaging, and chemical sectors, earning a reputation for quality and innovation. “We are excited about the opportunities that this partnership presents for our team and our customers,” said Mr. Iannacone. “ONDEX Automation’s resources and industry expertise will enable us to continue delivering high quality system integration services while exploring new avenues for growth.”

“We are thrilled to welcome ACI to the ONDEX platform,” said Justin Kerr, CEO of ONDEX. “With over 30 years of experience, Ron and his outstanding team have established themselves as trusted partners to a diverse range of customers in the automation space. ACI’s extensive capabilities will not only accelerate our strategic goals across the business, but also create new growth opportunities for both our current and future customers.”

Backed by Shore Capital Partners, a Chicago-based private equity firm, ONDEX Automation is building a leading system integrator to serve the needs of our North American manufacturing customers. ONDEX is actively pursuing additional opportunities to partner with factory automation system integrators who bring a diverse range of capabilities, experienced engineering talent, and a shared commitment to innovation and excellence.
